Tried Many Remedies but Grew Worse—Impossible to Do Housework—Cured by Cuticura Soap and Ointment.

"About six years ago my hands began to crack and peel. I tried many remedies, but they grew worse all the time. At last they became so sore that it was impossible for me to do my housework. I put my hands in water, I was in agony; if I tried to cook, the heat caused intense pain. I consulted a doctor, but without the least satisfaction. After about a year of this suffering, I got my first relief when I tried Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. After using them for a week I found to my great delight that my hands were beginning to feel much better, the deep cracks began to heal up and stop running, and in a little while my hands were cured by using only one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment. I am very thankful to say that I have had no return of the skin disease since. I shall be glad if you will publish this so that others may know of Cuticura. My, Minnie Drew, 23 Danforth St., Jamaica Plain, Mass., April 20, 1910."

For thirty years Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment have afforded speedy relief to tens of thousands of skin-tormented and disfigured sufferers from eczema, rashes, itching, irritations and chafings, from infancy to age bringing comfort and peace to distracted households when all else failed.

TRUSTEES HEAR PROTESTS.

Question of Separation of Orphanage and Old Folks' Home Considered. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lynchburg, Va., October 11.—The board of trustees of the Odd-Fellows' Orphanage and Old Folks' Home, which are located a short distance below the city, yesterday listened to the protests of delegations of Odd-Fellows from Lynchburg and Danville and representatives of the Lynchburg Chamber of Commerce over the proposed removal of the Old Folks' Home from the orphanage grounds.

The delegations asked that, if the Old Folks' Home is separated from the orphanage, that it be not removed from Lynchburg, but that it be located on other property here.

The board, it is understood, is to make recommendations to the Grand Lodge at its next annual meeting here in May, 1911, and the chances are that the board will favor the protest made and will not recommend that the institution be taken away from here.

It is believed, however, that until more satisfactory arrangements can be made by the board that additional veteran members of the order will not be admitted to the home, as it is situated now.
